Keeping the Temple Emmanuel Community in Touch

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Just a few weeks have passed since we joyously celebrated the Festival of Lights, Hanukkah, the Temple Emmanuel Hanukkah Family Service, and the Temple Emmanuel's CHAI School Hanukkah Festival. This year's Hanukkah held particular significance, considering Israel and the Jewish community's challenges over the past 100+ days. Hanukkah imparts the enduring lessons of strength, resilience, and pride in our identity, encouraging us to triumph over even the most formidable situations. The Festival of Lights is a form of spiritual and cultural resistance where we believe that goodness and light can prevail over darkness and that each of us has a role in making that happen.

I express my gratitude to our dedicated volunteers whose unwavering commitment contributed significantly to the success of these events. They undertook various tasks, from adorning the temple to preparing and serving meals and assisting with the CHAI School Hanukkah Festival.

As we look forward to 2024, we are searching for a new group of volunteers and fresh ideas for social events. We would be delighted to hear from you if you are interested in being part of this meaningful endeavor. Your support and involvement make a meaningful difference in fostering a vibrant and connected community.

May God bless Israel and those who stand with it! Am Yisrael Chai.

Am Yisrael Chai!

FROM THE RABBI

Events Beyond Our Control

You've probably heard the expression "Change is the only constant," and I believe that's true. And according to the Torah, the only things in this world that are permanent and eternal are God, the Torah, and the Jewish people – Am Yisrael Chai.

Over the last few months, our community has been challenged in ways we never anticipated, with the ever-unfolding events in Israel and the news of Chabad coming to Wakefield. Both situations provoked feelings of worry and despair in our community, simultaneously fearing for the future of Israel as well as that of our 76-year community in Wakefield. But I believe strongly in the words of Rabbi Akiva – gam zu l'tov – that "this, too, is for the best." When things seem to be at their darkest and scariest, Jewish tradition teaches us not to fear, but rather to find the light.

Events in Israel are, sadly, far beyond our control. What has been proven since October 7th is that America is Israel's staunchest ally, through thick and thin. Despite anti-Israel protests all over the country, all our elected leaders in Washington, both Democrat and Republican, steadfastly support Israel in its war against Hamas and Hezbollah.

And even though it's much more local, Chabad's arrival this Spring is also beyond our control. For the first time in the history of Wakefield, there will be TWO synagogues. Chabad must believe that there are unaffiliated Jewish people in our neck of the woods, and they seek to capitalize! What if they're right – that there are Jewish people in Wakefield, Reading, Saugus, and Stoneham that are looking for a spiritual home? Rather than fearing about a scarcity of Jews, we can approach Chabad's entry to Wakefield with an attitude of abundance, as they are.

Unraveling My Father's Holocaust Survival Story with Irene Stern Frielich

Sunday February 25, 2024. at 11:30 AM

Author Irene Stern Frielich shares the inspirational story of her family's escape from Germany on Kristallnacht in 1938. Irene's father was 12 years old when they fled their home and crossed the border to the Netherlands. Her book, "Shattered Stars Healing Hearts" retraces the Stern-Herzfeld family's steps to freedom.

Join us for an engaging multi-media presentation where Irene chronicles her family's journey from 1938-1945. Irene shares excerpts from her father's testimonial where he finally shares the dramatic experiences of the war. Irene describes 3 transformational trips to Germany and Holland she made with her own family in 2018-19. She is deeply grateful to the 18 courageous individuals who

MLK DAY CELEBRATION

On Monday, January 16th, Wakefield Human Rights Commission remembered Martin Luther King and his wife Coretta at the Galvin Middle School. The theme of this year's program was sharing the optimism of the Kings on MLK Day. There were poems and stories told as well as the talented dancers of OrigiNation.

Rabbi Greg Hersh gave the invocation noting that "it is easier to do nothing than something and hate than love. It would have been easier to stay home on a cold day than come here, but you didn't." Dr. King didn't take the easy way out. He forced America to reckon with its lofty goals despite racism and his work isn't done. We still struggle with this. We must still combat racism and hatred of the other. May we be the light that drives out darkness. May we be the love that drives out hate.' Later in the program, Rabbi Greg led the audience in a sing-a-long of TEACH YOUR CHILDREN by Graham Nash.

...RABBI, CONTINUED

Chabad's arrival won't be the end of us; rather, it's a new beginning. Since we're no longer "the only synagogue in the area," we have to self-define in ways that make us distinct. At Temple Emmanuel of Wakefield, women are leaders and fully participate in everything we offer. LGBTQ identities are celebrated. We come together out of love for our Jewish community and traditions, not from a sense of duty or obligation.

We end every service with the words, "Adonai li v'lo yira" – "God is with me so I will not fear." No matter how bad things seem, I hold the ancient belief that gam zu l'tov, that "this, too, is for the best." No matter what the future brings, we will continue to fulfill our mission of being a proud, welcoming, and joyful Jewish community in Wakefield.

TEMPLE READS

SUNDAY FEB 18th at 7 pm.

The Wind Knows my Name by Isabel Allende

Vienna, 1938. Samuel Adler is 5 years old when his father disappears during Kristallnacht—the night his family loses everything. As her child's safety becomes ever harder to guarantee, Samuel's mother secures a spot for him on a Kindertransport train out of Nazi-occupied Austria to England. He boards alone, carrying nothing but a change of clothes and his violin.

Arizona, 2019. Eight decades later, Anita Díaz and her mother board another train, fleeing looming danger in El Salvador and seeking refuge in the United States. But their arrival coincides with the new family separation policy, and seven-year-old Anita finds herself alone at a camp in Nogales. She escapes her tenuous reality through her trips to Azabaha, a magical world of the imagination. Meanwhile, Selena Durán, a young social worker, enlists the help of a successful lawyer in hopes of tracking down Anita's mother.

Intertwining past and present, The Wind Knows My Name tells the tale of these two unforgettable characters, both in search of family and home. It is both a testament to the sacrifices that parents make and a love letter to the children who survive the most unfathomable dangers—and never stop dreaming. # TEMPLE REMEMBERS WWII'S FOUR CHAPLAINS

On Friday, February 2, Temple Emmanuel invites community members to a special Shabbat Celebration that will include a remembrance of WWII's heroic Four Chaplains. Retired Major Paul J. Cancellier will offer a contemporary military story about faith and giving. Most would never consider passing to another what keeps them alive. The Four Chaplains did this offering "life" to others aboard a sinking USS Dorchester.

In the early morning hours of 3 February 1943, US Army Transport Ship (U.S.A.T.) Dorchester, a converted cruise ship, was torpedoed by a German submarine in the icy seas off Labrador in the North Atlantic. Heavily damaged by the torpedo, it is believed that the Dorchester took on water and sank within twenty minutes of the torpedo strike. Survivors of the sinking reported that during the ensuing pandemonium, four men were seen offering encouragement, support and even their own lifejackets to those in need. The four men were Reverend George Lansing Fox, a Methodist Minister from Gilman VT; Doctor Alexander David Goode, a Rabbi from Washington DC; Reverend Clarke Vandersall Poling, a Minister of The First Reformed Church from Schenectady NY; and the Reverend John Patrick Washington, a Catholic Priest from Arlington NJ. They are known to this day as "The Four Chaplains".

Observances are held each year across the nation. On May 30, 1955, a dedication ceremony took place at Temple Emmanuel. An Interfaith Memorial Plaque was presented to Temple Emmanuel by Dr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Leavitt. According to the records of the Temple, the gifts of the Four Chaplains Plaque and the Memorial Marker were given "in recognition of the Brotherhood of all Mankind."
